Tweedy, Browne Announces an Addition to Its Investment Committee

December 11, 2014 — We are pleased to announce that Frank Hawrylak will be joining us as a member of the firm's Investment Committee effective today.

Frank H. Hawrylak, a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA), joined the Investment Adviser in 1986 and is a security analyst primarily focused on global equities. Prior to joining the Investment Adviser, he worked in the investment department at Royal Insurance. Mr. Hawrylak received a B.S. from the University of Arizona (1977) and an M.B.A. from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland (1980).

We look forward to working more closely with Frank in his expanded role at the firm and to his contributions to the continued success of Tweedy, Browne.
